

Application form for financial support

Questionnaire to be completed and returned by 15 May 2024 to the following address: academie@festivalravel.fr.

The Academy's Young Musicians' Support Fund awards grants, the amount of which is deducted from the tuition fees. In 2024, it awards grants to instrumentalists, singers, composers and ensembles. Given that the number of applications exceeds the number of grants available, this allocation will be subject to selection by the Support Fund Committee. In exceptional circumstances, the Committee may award grants that also cover accommodation expenses.

Document to be attached to your application:

- Your 2023 tax notice on 2022 income
- Your parents' 2023 income tax return for 2022 (if your parents are supporting you in full or in part)

1. What will be your status at the time of the Ravel Academy Session?

- Student
- Intermittent
- Professional freelance artist
- Other. Please specify:

2. Could you please tell us how much your average net monthly income is?

Specifying, if possible, what falls under:

- Your artistic activity
- From another professional activity
- Possible scholarships
- Parental or family support

3. Could you briefly explain why you are applying for financial support?

I, the undersigned _____, hereby give my consent to Académie Ravel to obtain a copy of my 2023 tax notice for the year 2022. I understand that this authorization is required for the award of the scholarship.

I also consent that Académie Ravel may use this information only within the specified scope and for no other reason. I understand that disclosing my tax notice to third parties without my consent could be a violation of my privacy and applicable laws.

I certify that the information provided in this consent notice is accurate and complete.

This consent is valid until I expressly revoke my consent in writing.
